LEAP YEAR DANCE OCCURS TONIGHT

LADIES OF THE TONOPAH DANCING CLUB WILL CONTROL.

The Leap Year dance to be given at Miners' hall tonight under the auspices of the ladies of the Tonopah Dancing Club, gives promise of being the greatest success of the many dances of the year. All sorts of surprises are said to be in store for the sterner sex, but they are nothing daunted, and the men declare that they are going to see the affair through to the end.

If a proposal is made by a lady in Leap Year, the gentleman to whom it is made can refuse it, but the penalty of such refusal is a silk dress or some such trifle, but it would be very ungallant to refuse a lady anything in leap year. The ladies escorting gentlemen to the dance will have the first opportunity of proposing to them, after which they become public property—that is the gentlemen do. A batch of engagements, it is expected, will be announced in the near future.

BASKET SOCIAL WAS A SUCCESS

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church made a great success of its basket social last night at the church—a success from all view points. There was a large attendance, a splendid literary and musical program, and the financial returns were most satisfactory.

W. C. Howard, one of the best known mining men on the coast, father of C. E. Howard of this city, arrived yesterday from Rawhide, where he spent several days looking over the ground, and was very well pleased with the camp. Mr. Howard makes his headquarters at Kingman, Arizona.

IS WELL PLEASED WITH THE BELMONT

CAL BROUGHER SAYS MINE LOOKS BETTER THAN WHEN HE WAS LAST HERE.

Cal Brougher, director, and one of the largest stockholders in the Belmont Mining Company, paid a visit to the Belmont mine yesterday, and was well pleased with the appearance of the property, and especially with that of the lower levels.

"There is plenty of ore on the lower levels," said Mr. Brougher, "and particularly on the 1000-foot level, where the most interesting work is going on. The mine looks twice as well as it did when I was here before. It is really worth while to make a visit to the Belmont at this time. Mr. Tillinghast, the general manager is here now, and the workings of the mine are open to the inspection of anyone who is interested. The fact that we have ore at depth means much for the mine, and much for the camp."

Mr. Brougher, who is accompanied by Mrs. Brougher on this trip, leaves with his wife this morning for their home in Oakland. The mining man says that in San Francisco they have awakened to the importance of Rawhide, and that there is a great deal heard of the new camp.

BILLY EMERSON AGAIN STRICKEN

RENO, Feb. 28.—A few months after he had risen from his bed in the Overland hotel, and on the eve of his departure for Rawhide, yesterday morning William H. Emerson, known to a host of friends from one end of the continent to the other as "Billy," was stricken with paralysis.

The attack came without the slightest warning. Emerson came to Reno from San Francisco on Wednesday, and spent that day and Thursday making preparations for a trip to the new Rawhide camp, and retired Thursday evening apparently in excellent health.

Emerson has suffered attacks of paralysis on two occasions before, once in San Francisco, and once in Nome, Alaska, but the last one occurred several years ago, and Emerson's friends were beginning to hope that he would not again be attacked.

After an examination by local physicians it was determined that while the attack was not necessarily fatal, it was best to provide extraordinary attention for the stricken man, and a trained nurse was summoned by telegraph from San Francisco yesterday morning, and is now at Emerson's bedside.

Emerson is a mining operator and capitalist of prominence and wealth, and has been operating in various parts of the world for many years, at this time having leases in Rawhide, Shasta county and in Nome, Alaska.

JUDGE BRISSELL HANDS OUT FINE

RAILROADER, FOR CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPON, PAID $20 AND COSTS.

A. G. Vogel, a workman on the railroad, was fined in Judge Brissell's court yesterday, $20 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon. Vogel's defense was that he was afraid for his life at the hands of the Greeks on the road. Vogel created quite a stir in railroad circles on Thursday afternoon, and declared that he was going to do some of the Greeks, then went up town with the butt of a revolver sticking out of his pocket. Afterwards he concealed the weapon, and then the police got him.

EAGLES LADIES' NIGHT A SUCCESS

MOST EXCELLENT PROGRAM IS FURNISHED ATTENDANTS AT FUNCTION.

The Eagles were at home in their aerial last night, and the ladies were in possession of the nest. It was ladies' night, and a most excellent program was rendered. Ed. Walker was in the chair as Chief Justice Soakem, and he permitted no guilty or innocent Eagle to escape. It cost P. H. McCarran a dollar for walking across the floor, and Jack McKenzie was fined two dollars for going to Goldfield. Everybody felt the blow of the judicial fist, and then they got Walker. Mrs. Walker was in the ladies' rooms, and word was brought to the chief justice that his wife was ill. He hastily appointed McKenzie as his substitute, and scurried to the door.

Just outside he was met by a bunch, who laid violent hands on him and beat him good. Then when he came back he was fined three dollars for leaving his bench without reason. The musical program met with great applause. Arthur Burrows, with a quartette composed of Mrs. Pope, Miss Pope, and Messrs. Roach and McCabe, sang "Sweet and Low," and Gus Henzel followed with a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Pope on the piano. Alec Dewar recited "The Poet's Cat," and Miss Anita Scheld rendered a piano solo. Teddy Cox gave a buck and wing dance, and Arthur Burrows sang "My Pretty Jane." There was a guitar, mandolin and violin trio by Messrs. Osborn, Biont and Henzel. Mr. Rieger sang the armorer's song from "Robin Hood," and then there was a trio by Messrs. Dennis, Rieger and Downs, accompanied by Miss Scheld. Harry Downs sang "Come to the Land of Bohemia." Mrs. Pope rendered "Alleen Alanna," and Mr. Biont sang an Italian song, and P. H. McCarran made a hit with the recitation of "That Sweetheart of Mine."

The entire program was fine, and was deservedly applauded. During the entertainment refreshments were served, and there was not a moment of the evening that was not thoroughly enjoyed.

LAST DANCE OF THE ASSEMBLY

The last dance of the Assembly, until after Lent, was held last night at Miners' hall, and was a distinctive social success. There was, naturally, a large attendance, and the affair was a most enjoyable one. Some of the costumes were most elaborate, and the scene was gay and charming. The music was good and the young people entered into the spirit of the dancing with a zest. There was a feeling of genuine regret when the strains of the last waltz died away, heralding the approach of the season of fasting and penance.

WRESTLING MATCH AT THE BUTLER

Fred Roeber and John Tippet will meet on the mat at the Butler theater tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock, the match to be decided by the best three out of five falls. Incidental to the wrestling match will be a stone-breaking match, Mr. Roeber engaging to break more rock with his fist than can Blacksmith Leonard with a sledge hammer. There will be a six-round go for blood between Kid Pearce and the Unknown Kid. The wrestling match will wind up the tournament and there is promised a very enjoyable entertainment.

REINHART IS MADE ASSISTANT

OCCUPIES POSITION SECOND TO PRESIDENT OF TONOPAH AND GOLDFIELD.

J. W. Reinhart, with headquarters at Tonopah, has been made assistant to the president of the Tonopah and Goldfield railroad. Mr. Reinhart has been here for the last few months acting in this capacity, but it was not until a few days since that his position was made an official one. While here he has been familiarizing himself with the operations of the road, and this was not a very hard task to him, for he has been many years a railroad man. In fact, he was at one time the president of the Santa Fe. This was about the time when the road was in the hands of a receiver.

President C. K. Lord of the Tonopah and Goldfield road brought Mr. Reinhart out here with him, after he was elected to succeed Brock to the presidency of the road. Mr. Reinhart has been here ever since. Not only is he the assistant to the president, but has been appointed comptroller as well. Following is a copy of the official notice creating the position for him, and naming him to fill it:

"Mr. J. W. Reinhart has this day been elected by the board of directors of this company, as assistant to the president and comptroller of the Tonopah and Goldfield Railroad Company, with headquarters at Tonopah, Nevada, and in addition to having direct control of the finances and accounts of the company, will exercise executive powers over all departments, including operations and traffic, in the absence of the president."

"By order of the board of directors. C. A. Higbee, acting secretary; C. K. Lord, president."
